

PASADENA INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICT GANG-RELATED ITEMS

To follow is a list of symbols and/or styles which are identified with gang membership or representation and is prohibited:

- Any and all items with gang symbols, hand signs, initials, and names which depict violence or violent behavior affiliated with gang membership that is on clothing, belts, belt buckles, shoes, jewelry, drawings, photos, pictures, decals, stickers, book bags, binders, folders, book covers, or toys depicting gang characters including those viewable or accessed in any digital format
- Baggy pants, overly starched pants, or pants worn below the waist. The rolling up of either pant leg or gathering and folding of the bottom pant cuff
- Red or blue shoe laces, untied shoelaces, or shoelaces tied into the number 13
- Bandanas, handkerchiefs, and durags
- College and professional sport teams attire, unless approved by school
- The Houston Astros baseball star logo, Houston Texans logo, Houston Rockets logo, Houston Oilers logo, or anything depicting the Houston skyline unless approved by the school
- The Rosary used as a necklace or any religious depictions mixed with gang symbols
- Three-pointed or five-pointed crowns and five-pointed or six-pointed stars
- Pitchfork symbols and the “Smile now ... cry later” masks
- Satanic symbols such as pentagrams and devil’s head, skull rings, or any variation of the Grim Reaper
- Joker, clown faces, and Playboy bunny insignia and illustrations
- Five-pointed star with the letter “H” within or on top of the star
- The numbers 13, 713, 281, 832, 52, or 59 or three dots in a triangle formation
- Dice, eight ball, spider web, dog paw insignia, or the letters “MOB”
- Confederate flag or swastika emblems
- Guns, bullets, knives, drugs, or drug paraphernalia or any insignia, symbolism, or illustration of these items
- Gang calls such as “Suu Woop,” Cuh Rip," "Killa," or “Crip Killa”
- Any clothing depicting gangs, mobsters, drugs, alcohol, or firearms
- Any insignia depicting Lean such as Houston Sippers or Splashtown